In Loving Memory of Randall (Randy, Ran Ran, Ran Rock, Show Pony) White
May 15th, 1953 - June 1st, 2025

Randy, known for his kind and humble nature, passed away peacefully on June 1st, 2025, in Nashville, TN, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Born and raised in Nashville, Randy was a true hometown spirit who filled our lives with love and laughter. He was a master in the kitchen, always baking up treats like banana nut bread, cookies, and his unforgettable homemade ice cream. His Easter baked brown bag ham was a family favorite, and holiday gatherings won't be the same without his culinary delights.

Randy loved nothing more than spending time with family and friends. He could often be found playing Euchre, sharing friendly competition and joyful moments that we'll cherish forever. His passion for building birdhouses and working with his hands reflected his hardworking and honest nature.

An avid football fan, Randy cheered enthusiastically for both the Chicago Bears and the Green Bay Packers. His eyes would light up during John Wayne cowboy movies and war films, and he loved sharing his favorite classics with us.

Above all, Randy was a wonderful caretaker of his family, especially his true love, Lorrie. His kindness, humility, and compassion touched everyone who knew him, and his generous heart made a lasting impact on our lives.

We'll forever hold Randy's gentle spirit close, remembering the warmth and joy he brought into every moment. Though he's no longer with us in person, his love continues to surround us, and his legacy lives on in our hearts.

Randy is preceded in death by parents Ed and June White, and brother, Mark White. Those left behind to cherish his memory are loving wife, Lorrie Morgan, children, Kelley White, Casey (Amanda) White, Charlie (Mark) Nelson, Brittney (Eric) Brewner, Jessie Keith (Kristen) Whitley, and Morgan Whitley, grandchildren, Britton White,

We had a lot of fun, a lot of silliness, a lot of food, a lot of conversations, a lot of stories, and always a good time in one way or another. I have a ton of pictures from over the years, even though I didn't know him or able to be around as long as others, but I think this about sums it up. I feel incredibly blessed/fortunate to have known Randy and to have called he and Lorrie friends/family. Love to all and always here anytime ❤️! Becky
