"Cuz" Ann was pure JOY! I first met her online, searching for our CRAFT family line and connection. She was absolutely amazing! So smart, so loving, so giving, she was family in all senses of the word. When she invited cousins for a get-together when she and James lived in Southaven, what a wonderful welcome and visit we all had. AND THE FOOD, my goodness!!! I'll miss Ann and her "out of her kitchen window" stories. I could never thank her enough for all the information she worked extremely hard to get and share with us all in our genealogy research. God gave us an Angel on earth, and He has called her Home to be with Him, James, her family, and friends she missed so terribly. We are left behind to miss her and keep her alive in our hearts and memories. God bless and comfort all of her family and friends.
