David Lee Faulkner

APR 12, 1956 - SEP 11, 2025

David Lee Faulkner, age 69, of Madison, Tennessee, passed away peacefully at his home on September 11, 2025. He was born on April 12, 1956, in Memphis, TN.

David proudly served his country in the United States Army, where he received the Good Conduct Medal and commendations as both a Sharpshooter and a Marksman. Following his military service, he dedicated more than three decades of his career to the Tennessee Department of Transportation (TDOT), working as a geotechnical, surveying, and construction engineering technician. His commitment, hard work, and steady presence left a lasting impact on both his colleagues and the community he served.

He will be remembered for his quiet strength, dedication, and the love he shared with his family and friends.

David was preceded in death by his parents, Harold Thomas Faulkner and Beatrice Joan Simpson Faulkner.

A private service to honor David's life is pending.

Arrangements entrusted to Spring Hill Funeral Home and Cemetery, 5110 Gallatin Pike, Nashville, TN 37216, 615-865-1101, <https://http-s://www.springhillfh.com>.
