James William Carter

JUN 7, 1932 - OCT 16, 2025

James William Carter lived each day as a faithful servant of Jesus Christ. His steady trust in the Lord guided him from childhood and remained the center of his life's journey. All who knew him saw a man whose hope rested in God's promises.

James carried that same faith into proud service as an Army veteran, grateful for the chance to defend the nation he loved. Whether on duty or at home, he leaned on prayer and scripture for strength. His humble spirit showed fellow soldiers and friends the quiet power of a life surrendered to Christ.

At home he was known as a good country man who loved Sports and any chance to tinker with tools or engines. Hard-working, responsible, loyal, and resilient, he fixed what was broken and encouraged others to keep going. His hands built and repaired, while his words pointed people back to God.

We give thanks for the witness of James William Carter and trust that he now rests in the eternal peace of his Savior. May we honor his memory by walking in the same humble faith and steadfast service. The family invites everyone to remember him with a simple blessing: "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter into the joy of your Lord."
