Britt was born October 25, 1967 to Earlean Ashley Evans (mother) of Dubach, LA and Earless Ross (father) of Omaha, NE in Amarillo, TX. He was the youngest of seven children. He came into the world when everyone else was beginning to start their families. He was a loveable chunky baby that you could not resist loving on. Britt married his high school sweetheart, Joyce Foster of Amarillo, TX and their matrimony moved them to Jackson, MS. Shortly after graduating and joining the Navy, Britt became an E3 helicopter mechanic, training in several locations and finally settling in Nashville, TN making this place his home. He served on the USS Forrestal Navy Ship until he completed service on December 10, 1993.

After completing his service with the Navy, he attained several jobs such as security guard, gas station attendant, correctional officer, and maintenance at a local hotel.

Marshea Evans lit a candle in honor of Britt.

Britt was the kind of person who express himself in such a way that you couldn't help but after. He was always concerned about the next person and would do his best to help you or your situation. He was funny and smart and wasn't afraid of hard work. He loved his family very much and will let you know how he felt if something wasn't right. We will miss you Britt. The conversations, the jokes and the good food. Fly high my brother, you are in God's hands now.
