James Kerby

NOV 3, 1967 - JAN 17, 2026

KERBY, James Wallace, age 58, of Nashville, TN, passed away at his home on Saturday, January 17, 2026.

James was born on November 3, 1967, in Nashville, TN, to the late Lilly Kerby. He was also preceded in death by his brother, James Robert, and his niece, Jamie Newson.

He is survived by his church family at Pasquo Church of Christ, his friend and preacher Marc Jones, his longtime friend John Jones, his lifelong friend Jimmy Hesson, and his beloved dogs. James was extremely grateful for every helping hand and kind word he received over the last year.

James was a graduate of David Lipscomb University, where he earned a Bachelor's degree in Theology. He never met a stranger, and he tried each day to live a life that honored God. James valued the people in his life deeply, and he will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

A graveside service and celebration of James's life will be held at 1p.m. on Saturday, February 28, 2026, at Historic Spring Hill Cemetery.

Arrangements entrusted to Spring Hill Funeral Home & Cemetery, 5110 Gallatin Pike, Nashville, TN 37216; (615) 865-1101.

James had noticed how my daughter took an interest in our gaming dice and bought her a set of purple dice (her favorite color) along one of his that she liked. I had seen James do things like that before. He was a very thoughtful and generous person.

Kerby was watching my dog Sam when I was out of town. He would sing the blues to Sam. Since I was not there. When I got home. Sam was singing. That is when Kerby said. I was singing the blues to Sam each night when you were gone. So sweet.
