Peggy "Peg" Diane Kennedy

OCT 1, 1950 - FEB 26, 2026

Peggy Diane Kennedy
October 1st, 1950 – February 26th, 2026

Smart and wise, Peggy "Peg" Diane Kennedy approached life with calm thoughtfulness that guided her family through many chapters. Those close to her often relied on her clear ideas and steady presence.

Peg found quiet joy in familiar stories, spending many evenings with reruns of Everybody Loves Raymond and The Andy Griffith Show. She also enjoyed reading, and in earlier years she devoted careful hands to quilting.

Born in Nashville, TN, Peg later built a home with her husband, Joseph "Joe" Kennedy. She was the daughter of Robert Kuchta and Mildred Kuchta, who both preceded her in passing.

Peg's son Paul Joseph Kennedy also passed before her. She is lovingly remembered by her sons Joseph "Ryan" Kennedy and Todd Russell (Tracy) Kennedy, and by her grandchildren Jeremy, Eban, and Emilyn Kennedy.

Her family will hold close the memory of a life marked by thoughtful guidance and simple, meaningful pleasures. In their own quiet moments, they will continue to feel Peg's steady wisdom nearby.
