I've heard so much about Dean over the years from Vickie! I was so impressed with how well she painted her nails! She always looked so beautiful and stylish, just like her daughter. I remember when she became the person at her facility that welcomes newcomers. She was so social and always had a busy calendar! She cared so much about everyone and making sure everyone around her was happy and comfortable. I will never forget how much she loved her cats and the pictures she kept of them!

We were so excited the first time that her daughter, Vickie, shared with us the pictures of her dancing with the local football players. It was awesome. She was a kind and fun and to the point kind of lady—who truly enjoyed life. What a testament to goodness. Love Marie
