I will always remember the good times France and I shared. The laughter, the chats, the meals most of all the friendship. May God bless her husband Tom and her three sons during this difficult time. Bonnie Reed

France and I were the two musketeers, through thick and thin we always had a laugh and a memory to last a life time. I've lost a sister so dear to my heart. though our lives took us to different places we always had that bond. My love for her pours out Cindy Moisan
