Brenda and I join your family in the sorrow of separation of loved ones that death brings. Although we did not know Ernest Lee III personally, we do know Ernest Lee II and Bill. Over the years of our service in Japan, we have been blessed by the Hollaway connection and praise the LORD for the legacy of a strong, vibrant, Christ-loving, Christ-serving family. We are praying for you as you rejoice in I Corinthians 15:57.

Dear Sharon and Family, I was saddened to hear about Lee's passing. I worked Lee during the Nelson Reference & Electronic days. Both Lee and I traveled many miles during those days and it was always an adventure, fun and he always picked the "best" restaurant Barbara West

We are so sorry for your loss. I wish I knew the words to comfort you, but I know that no matter the situation, losing a loved one is difficult. I know that with a wonderful person, 69 years still seems too few, but I had to think "What a wonderful legacy" Katherine Williams
