So wise, generous and funny, you could always make me smile. In the summer of 2000 when I was trying to make a very difficult decision about the future, Fae gave me a gift that I will always cherish, it is a framed inspirational message about having faith Janice Van Fossen

Fae, You have given us memories that will always bring a smile to our hearts that will last forever. You knew more about world events and politicians than anyone I knew. She would stay up late for election results and take the next day off work to sleep. Fa Minnie Johnson

My Fae Fae.... I remember meeting Fae for the first time the day after I arrived in Nashville. I didn't know what to think, who was this little tiny woman with the big sense of humor? I was fortunate enough to work with her for several years, and I will miss Eric Haga

To the family of Fae Pena, Thank you Fae for ALL of the great memories we shared working together for over 10 years, enjoying all of the stories you told, riding to work together on occasion and enjoying the treats you splurged on us "just because". You left Minnie Johnson

I don't even know what to say, but the world lost a wonderful and entertaining person. At work we use to tell Fae she needed to write a book of all the stories she use to tell us. I would buy it. I would ask Fae to say the blessing at hotdog day at work a Robin Hill
