Good afternoon Betty Jo, thinking hard of you today and I didn't realize that you could still send messages to you. When I go to the mausoleum to visit you I talk to you and of course I can see that big smile of yours with those big dimples. Kenny makes you the most beautiful flower arrangements. I know that you have a giant smile on your face when you see him placing on those beautiful flowers there. I miss you and I still remember how you use to tell everybody that when I was 5 and 6 years old and we would be catching a bus to go down town people would ask you if I was your daughter!! You would just laugh and laugh. I miss you and I Love You Betty. Talk to you later

Kenny, I do not have the words to express my deepest sympathy. I lost my mom 23 yrs ago. Be at peace knowing that she is now your very special guardian angel and is watching over you. She is free of pain and suffering. It is harder for those of left behind Susan Huttinger
