Hey Poppo, it's the oldest grandson here. The only grandchild you had before you left us. Not a day goes by where I haven't thought about you. I haven't eaten watermelon since you left besides maybe like 2 or 3 times in the last few years but it took me quite a long time to eat one after you left. That used to be our thing. I miss you so much and hope you are having fun up there. You would have loved the rest of the grand babies if you would have met them. They are all amazing. Mom had a babygirl now so I have a sister on this side. I've also got a couple other sisters on my dad's side as well. I'm in college now. Man I wish you could've been here to watch me walk across the stage in both high school and college. GG passed a few years ago but you probably know that by now. I miss you so much poppo. I wish I knew what happened to you for you to leave so soon but I was still young so I didn't know much about it. I miss our trips to DQ all the time where you'd buy me some ice cream. I miss being your little buddy. I love you Poppo. Hope you're enjoying everything you're doing. Keep watching me make you more and more proud as days go by.

To my dad...I may never know why you left us all, but I do know that you are still loved and missed by all of us very much. We think about you everyday and all the time. I know that you're in a better place and you are no longer in pain. And though it's hard Jackie Welch
