Linda Posey

DEC 25, 2012

Linda Langdon Posey, Age 83, Beloved wife and mother, passed away peacefully in her sleep, December 25, 2012. Mrs. Posey was born in Houston, TX and raised in Mississippi. She earned her bachelor's degree at Millsaps College in Jackson, Mississippi and her Masters in library and information science from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Mrs. Posey worked for years with the Knoxville/Knox County public library, McClung Historical Collection, and after retiring to the Mississippi gulf coast worked for the Pascagoula library system. Mrs. Posey was devoted to service and support of those around her. She will be terribly missed. Mrs. Posey is survived by her loving husband of 60 years, Franz, her daughter Catherine Posey, son Mike Posey, Daughter Joyce (Brad) Rust, sister Betty Langdon Currey, granddaughter Laura (Dustin) Bruce, grandsons Ian Rust, Dylan Rust, Franz Rust, granddaughter Alma Rust and great granddaughter Jocelin Leanne Bruce. There will be a private family memorial service at a later date.

This is one obituary I never anticipated reading as I had imagined Linda stubbornly living on until the end of time (or libraries!). I'm grateful to her for recommending I be hired at the McClung Collection all those years ago. She was definitely a force Beth Sanderbeck

Cathy, I lost my mom earlier this month. I know no matter how long & full a life she had or how sure you are she is in a better place where she is free of the pain and indignities of an aging body, it hurts to lose your mother. I pray you and your family Kirk Smith

I have very fond memories of Mrs. Posey and her helpfulness to family and local historians at the McClung Collection. She was both knowledgeable and patient while working with researchers, even when we became frustrated by the lack of information! She wa Billie McNamara
