Louetta was born March 16, 1944 in Tarentum, PA, the daughter of William Clark and Edna Louetta Grimm. Louetta thoroughly enjoyed the mountains, reading, and traveling. Sayne, Jr. of Hendersonville; daughters, Deborah J. Sheehan of Medina and Bonnie M. Blaylock of Yorktown, VA; grandchildren, Lyndsay and Cassidy Sheehan, Zandalee Sayne and Jordan and Sean Blaylock. I was Darlyne's roommate when we both lived and worked in Washington, D.C. Her father escorted me down the aisle at my marriage, Fort Mayer Chapel, Fort Myer U.S. Army, Arlington, Va. I was married on July 31, 1965 and Darlyne was my maid of honor. I moved to CA and lost touch. So sorry to learn of her passing. A very special person. My sincere condolences. Dr. Bonnie L. Very sad loss. I still remember when I worked with Mrs. Sayne in the High School front office my junior year. She came into study hall and picked me, Chris Henley and Pat Ham. Hope you are happy now, I know you had been missing Mr. Sayne too. Peace an Dave Caluger

Raymond and I always enjoyed the times that we shared the moments in Zandalee's life with her other grandparents. Louetta and Ken always just glowed when they saw Zandalee. Louetta's influence on her family is demonstrated by the loving, family oriented p Joy & Raymond Sloan
