“ Mike and I got to know Nita through Susie and Darryl in her later years. Just in the short time we knew her, we saw she was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother. She was kind and her smile was contagious but her love of the Lord and walking the walk are things that stand out to us. She lived a wonderful life and now is living in an even better life with her husband. Our sincerest sympathies to all the families
Love to all, Jolene and Mike Richardson
