Evelyn Riat Marsh 91, of Joelton, Tennessee, passed away on Tuesday, May 20, 2020. Born May 19, 1929 in Nashville, Tennessee she was the daughter of the late Fred Riat and Lillie Martin Riat.

She never met a stranger and lived her life to it's fullest and was so young at heart that within minutes you would forget her age. Weather you called her Evelyn, Ms. Marsh or Ma, if you needed a good laugh she was the person to see. Early mornings and punctuality were her downfalls but everyone has one or two. Love was what she had to give and what so many gave to her.

She is survived by her daughter Brenda Watts Burnett, loving son-in-law Sammy Burnett; grandsons, Kevin Burnett (Tessa) and Brian Burnett (Debbie); great grandchildren, Heather Haynes (Elliott), Lesley Pulous (Fadi), Aaron Burnett, Bryson Burnett and Jordan Burnett; great-great grandchildren Brynn Barrett and Belle Haynes; sisters, Angela Riat Bettis (David) and Vickie Riat Teal (Gary); life long friend, Norma Washam.; special friends, Richard and Linda Hargrove, Chris, Nathalie, Krista and Nicholas Stiers, Robert and Crystal Demonbreum, Steve and Ronda Ganaway.

Visitation and services are private for the family.

“ I am saddened by Evelyn's passing. She was my new-found friend several years ago; I first met her at the care facility where she and my dad resided. I am sorry for Brenda, Vickie and all of Evelyn's family and friends. She will be so missed BUT don't we know she is happily entertaining all who surround her now in her new and final home. Evelyn was sweet and fun; I loved her.

“ Evelyn was a true friend. My husband Richard and I loved her so much . She was so fun , sweet and loving . She made me laugh when I wanted to cry . We would talj endlessly on the phone . We would go down memory lane every now and then and laugh about things my husband did and me fussing at him . She loved Richard . One day Richard shInd I went to visit her , she was lying there her eyes were closed and we all thought she was sleeping someone said she is asleep. Then Richard said look at those pretty toenails!! She opened her eyes and said Hi baby !!! She was so excited to see him . Then she said hi Linda baby how are you doing . Those two messed with each other all the time . She called Richard her boyfriend. You are going to be missed my sweet lady . We will always love you and you will forever be in our hearts
