“ Marie was one of my favorite people. She was disarmingly hilarious (think Aubrey Plaza). We used to volunteer in our high school's front office, and we spent our senior year using that privilege to call each other out of class in an “official” capacity. There was no one better to play hookie with. She absolutely adored animals, obviously including Dexter and Padme, and she thought people were fine

“ Marie and I met in high school, and after we no longer went to school together, we touched base throughout the years. It always felt like picking up where we left off, and I appreciated that. I will miss her friendship. Marie was a beautiful person inside and out, an accepting and loyal friend to have. Her absence will be felt deeply in the hearts of many.

“ A loyal, intelligent, and thoughtful friend.... I remember going to Koto weekly for sushi our senior year of high school and working on our economics project together. She made everyone feel comfortable and at ease, and her tasteful sarcasm will forever be unmatched. I will miss Marie and always regret that we grew apart. I'm thinking of her family during this time.

“ I only knew Marie for a short time, but in that time I learned what a precious soul she was. Marie became very close friends, best friends, with my daughter, Kayla Eaton. The impact that Marie had on my daughter...there are no words. Kayla and Marie talked every day. The picture attached is the day Marie went with Kayla, drove 7 1/2 hours round trip, to pick up Kaylas new puppy. Now that's a true friend. Marie will truly be missed. My heart goes out to all of Marie's family and friends.

“ I only knew Marie for a short time, but in that time I learned she had the biggest heart, the sweetest soul I’ve ever met. Marie became a dear friend of my daughter Kayla Eaton. Kayla and Marie spoke everyday. The impacted Marie had on my daughter ...I have no words. She was a true friend. The picture attached is the day Kayla and Marie drove 7 1/2 hours, round trip, to pick up Kayla’s new puppy. Only a true friend would endure that.
