

Mark VanArsdal

October 2, 1989 - July 8, 2019

Mark A. VanArsdal, age 29 of Madison, Tennessee, passed away on Monday, July 8, 2019 from digestive system failure. He is preceded in death by his grandparents Harry and Kathryn VanArsdal, William and Patricia Flood; uncle William Flood Jr., and furry friends Rufus and Peek. He is survived by his parents, Alan and Susan VanArsdal, sister, Sarah VanArsdal, his aunts: Mabel (Dan) Roods, Pat (Bill) Flood, Kathy (Jay) Kaplan, Mary (John) Flood-Ladd, Cindy Jacobsen, and Suzanne Flood, uncles, Paul (Diane) VanArsdal, Rob Jacobsen, as well as numerous cousins.

Mark was a true cat lover, brilliant, and artistic with a dry sense of humor and loved debating philosophy. He enjoyed hanging out at home with his furry friends Nedley and Percy, playing video games, drawing, and reading. Mark was a loyal friend, and kept in touch with his close friends, Eric, Sean, and Erin, despite the distance between them.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Mark's death! If Janett was able to understand she would be joining in grief. I remember Mark standing in front of Jan's drawing of Mary and saying "She is so beautiful!" He was very special. Our love is with you, as well as our prayers.

“ My nephew Mark was just like the little brother I never had. I don't know who was the worst influence on the other. Late one night after a few cocktails, we decided we had to go on a Keith Moon adventure to the Flint MI Holiday Inn where Keith drove a limo into the hotel swimming pool, all we had to do was convince his father. (It didn't take much prodding) The next day Mark said to me "congratulations Uncle Paul, in one week you've been to the three most violent cities in the U.S., Saginaw, Flint and Detroit." That wonderful dry humor of his! Love you Mark, always in our hearts.

“ Mark was ferociously loyal. As a child, he would brook no mocking of his hero, Sonic the Hedgehog!

“ Mark is my cousin. We were nearly 20 years apart, and always lived several states away from each other. So as I picture him, and remember him, the memories are scattered across the years. But what I think of most when I think of him was an impish smile he always had, that reminded me of our (very funny) uncle. I remember at our wedding, having a blast with his cousin Trevor (picture attached - that smile clearly on display.) I remember beach days and lobster bakes in the Hamptons. And then I remember him as a teenager with an angsty, but searing intellect, and a sharp wit. And what I remember and know is how close a family Aunt Sue, Al, Sarah and Mark have always been, and how much they value each other's company. I'm so deeply sorry for this loss, and for the pain I know this brings to my whole family. Much love and sympathy to you all, I hope to see you soon.
