“ May I will miss you dearly you were a great second Mother to me and my brother. I remember you would always tell people that these are Raymond twins boys. And you would tell them that you wasn't there stepmother you would say this are my boys with that beautiful smile that you had. And you always good to us. I remember when my mother away you said to me. I know I can't take the place of your mother but said I will do my very best. Mary Hewitt I will never forget you and you always be in my heart.

I love you Dearly

Your Son always and Forever.
