Gene – or as some jokingly called him, “Mean Gene”- was quite the character. He was a free spirit with a sharp wit and an even sharper intellect. He was kindhearted, never met a stranger, and would absolutely give you the shirt off his back should you need it. Gene just really liked to have a good time, he brightened the lives of those around him, and he will be greatly missed by those who knew him.

Services will be planned for a future date, and will be announced by the family once finalized. Spring Hill Funeral Home has been entrusted with the final care for Mr. Zeltner. 5110 Gallatin Pike, Nashville, Tennessee 37216. (615)865-1101. “Where Nashville Remembers.”

“ Gene you were a sweetheart! It seems like just yesterday since we were all teenagers. Your heart was so big in helping others, and that great smile of yours would brighten any room. Although I haven't seen you in a few years, you still were in my thoughts always. I loved you and your family! Spread your wings and fly my friend, you've earned them. God Bless

“ The things I will remember most about Gene are his laugh, his wonderful if sometimes wicked sense of humor, and how much he loved his family. Godspeed my dear friend.
