“ Ron Hale was a good man, he was a good husband, a good brother, a good father and a good friend. He was all but one of those people to me. He was always there for me since I was a young and naive teenager. He and Joan took care of me when I was young and helped me in so many ways as I grew up. They were always there to support me in challenging times. I knew I could always turn to them and would be taken care of. I consider myself very blessed to have that love and support in my life. I, like many, will miss his presence in my life but will carry the memories that will remain forever. He was my sisters knight in shining armor but he was my rock and I will love him forever.

“ Tracy and our family are so sorry for Joan, Jessica, and your family for your loss. Ron was the most sweetest, kind man I have ever meet. When i first meet Ron i thought Oh he looks like Kenny Rogers but Ron was better, he always made me smile and laugh. He was a handsome man with a kind loving soul. Joan i know you are hurting but I cant begin to know how deep your pain goes. Ron will always watch over you like he has always done and he will look after your family as well. Deep love for you and i will always hold a special place in my heart for Ron(my kenny rogers).

“ Ron you and Joan are two of the nicest people that I have ever had the pleasure to know. They were mom and dad's neighbors for several years. Ron always spoke and had kind words when he saw me. I will surely miss him. Joan you and the rest of your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Please do not hesitate to call Debbie or me if you ever need anything.
