“ Aunt Sheryl was a lady i looked up to. she was there when i needed to be talked to and i was there for her to talk when she felt like it. Mama said Sheryl got mad at mama, because she got married right after she was born.!!! mama had wanted a little sister and then what can we say. She fell in love with daddy and the rest history. Mama moved to a place in Nashville and then to her home for over 60 years in Charlotte, Tn. But Sheryl and mama had some interesting stories to tell. Blackberry picking was one. HAHAHA
I love and still do love my Aunt Sheryl

“ What can I say? Sheryl was my best friend, my Jacks sister, my sister in Law but more importantly she was my Sister in Christ. The one thing that gives me peace is that she has been united with her son Earl after 30 plus years! What a reunion that must be. R.I.P. my Sheryl, she will always be missed! Until we meet again!!

“ Where do I start, my best friend, my sister in law but most importantly she was my sister in Christ. My confident, my Jacks sister and they had such a precious connection. She will be forever missed, my heart is broken into many pieces. It gives me peace to know that after 30 plus years she is with her precious son Earl!
R. I. P. My Beautiful sister!
Love always and forever.
